FORM COASTERS

Form is an exquisite collection of table accessories that seamlessly marries the principles of "form follows function" with an unwavering commitment to practical elegance. Crafted with precision, each piece in this collection embodies purity, refinement, and a timeless aesthetic, making it the epitome of sophistication for one's dining experience. At the heart of Form lies a unique sculptural quality, where the functional composition of primal shapes — circles and squares — intersect harmoniously, creating a visually captivating ensemble. This intentional design approach not only enhances the overall aesthetic appeal but also ensures that each accessory serves its purpose with utmost efficiency. The collection's protagonist is luxurious leather, elevating the tactile experience and adding a touch of opulence to the functional elements. The choice of leather not only underscores the commitment to quality but also enhances the longevity of these pieces' unfading charm. Form is more than just a collection; it's an expression of thoughtful design that transcends trends, making it a lasting addition to any table setting.

GIOBAGNARA

GIOBAGNARA established a collaboration with STUDIO PIET BOON, which designed an iconic collection where leather is the main character.

This resulted in a wide range of carefully designed products for the home that seamlessly complement each other.

Refinement, functionality and timelessness characterize the authentic and distinctive design philosophy of this collaboration's pieces. The interplay of these designs underlines Studio Piet Boon and Giobagnara experience as a whole and adds an exclusive signature to each space.
